Annual Report 2009⁻²⁰¹⁰

It is my privilege to present the forty-ninth Annual Report of the India International Centre for the year commencing 1 February, 2009 and ending on 31 January, 2010. It will be placed before the fifty-fourth Annual General Body Meeting of the Centre, to be held on 29 March, 2010.

Mr. L.K. Joshi and Professor S.K. Thorat were elected to the Board of Trustees, the former from the Individual Members' constituency and the latter from the Corporate segment. For the Executive Committee, Mr. Vipin Malik and Lt. Gen. V.R. Raghavan were elected representing the Individual Members Segment, Dr. K.T. Ravindran, the Corporate Members Segment, and Professor Rajasekharan Pillai from the Universities. Mr. Kisan Mehta and Mr. K.N. Desiraju were nominated to the Executive Committee by the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees reconstituted the Finance Committee for the two year period April 2009 to March 2011 with Dr. Shankar Nath Acharya as Chairman, and Lt. Gen. V.R. Raghavan and Mr. Pradeep Dinodia as Members.

The Library and the House Committees tenures were also reconstituted for a period of two years, i.e. from May 2009 to April 2011.

In this year's national honours list, twenty-three of the Centre's distinguished members were vested with Padma awards.

Activities

As we look at the activities of the year, it is time to recall that the Centre was established "to promote understanding and amity between the different communities of the world by undertaking or supporting the study of their past and present cultures, by disseminating or exchanging knowledge thereof, and by providing such other facilities as would lead to their universal appreciation."

Efforts are made to initiate national and international conferences, seminars, discussions, lectures, and illustrated presentations together with programmes in music, films, performing and visual arts keeping this aim in mind. Since the idea is to reach out widely, most of these programmes are offered not only to members but to the interested public. While everyone in the Centre tries to achieve the said objectives, three Divisions of the Centre are at the forefront in the efforts to pursue these aims, and these divisions are: Programmes, Library and Publications and their activities are interdependent.

After due consideration, and keeping the objectives of the Centre in mind, some core areas of concern with significant societal implications have been identified. These are:-

- a) Education
- b) Health and Healing Systems
- c) Environment and Climate Change
- d) Politics and Governance

These are kept in mind as the year's programmes are planned.

Apart from these programmes, the Centre also hosts events held in collaboration with institutions that have similar interests and concerns and with foreign missions. In addition to these, the Centre also facilitates the use of its venues for programmes such as cultural performances, conferences, seminars, book releases and so on. However, all programmes presented at the Centre have to bear the aims of the Centre in mind and strive towards excellence.

It has been felt that more young people have to be encouraged to participate in the programmes of the Centre. To this end, several new initiatives were taken in the year under review. Some were specially designed for school children and university students. Concerts, workshops on storytelling and projects on climate change brought together children from government and private schools to present their work. It is intended to expand these activities so that the Centre can be a bridge between the different generations. Professor Narayani Gupta played an important role in helping with these.

In another initiative, a Youth Forum was launched and was attended by university students and young professionals. Professor Sidney Rebeiro as Chief Mentor, helped to coordinate this. As a pilot project, the Youth Forum would meet once a month to discuss, analyze and develop proposals on contemporary issues, such as National Youth Policy; Delhi and its Satellite Towns and environmental issues. The idea was to include young voices into matters of national and civilizational concern. An address, titled 'Strategizing the Youth Dividend', was given by Dr. Kavita A. Sharma, Director, IIC to launch this venture.

The programmes, organized between February 2009 and January 2010, consist of 266 seminars / talks / discussions and 327 performances, exhibitions, as well as documentary and feature films. Some were the annual flagship programmes of the Centre, such as the C.D. Deshmukh Memorial Lecture, the IIC Annual Day, the Mid-Year Review of the Indian Economy, the IIC Experience, the Durgabai Deshmukh Memorial Lecture in collaboration with the Council for Social Development and the programmes of the IIC Asia Project. The year was special as it marked the birth centenaries of both Smt. Durgabai Deshmukh and Dr. Malcolm Adiseshiah.

C.D. Deshmukh Memorial Lecture

The annual C.D. Deshmukh lecture organized annually to honour the memory of the founding President of the IIC was delivered by the eminent film maker and Rajya Sabha M.P., Mr. Shyam Benegal. He spoke on 'Communications and Culture: Tradition, Modernity and Post Modernism in Indian Cinema', which covered virtually the entire history of Indian cinema from its earliest years to the present times. Since he was indisposed, he only briefly introduced the topic while the text of his lecture was read out by Dr. Shohini Ghosh of Jamia Millia Islamia. The evening was presided over by Professor M.G.K. Menon, President IIC, who dwelt on the many remarkable aspects of Dr. C.D. Deshmukh's personality and the breadth of his vision in creating the India International Centre.

IIC Annual Day

The forty-seventh Annual Day was celebrated on 22 January. It was on this day, in 1962, when the Centre moved to its newly-constructed premises. A tea for members was followed by a lecture 'Homi Bhabha – A Modern Leonardo da Vinci' by Professor M.G.K. Menon, President IIC, with Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan in the Chair. Other highlights were a special exhibition on Dr. Bhabha from the archival material drawn from the Tata Institute of Fundamental Research (TIFR) on view in the foyer to mark the centenary of Dr. Homi Bhabha. A film, In Love With India, directed by Vidyut Shah for Doordarshan, was also screened. Later, there was a contributory special continental dinner for members in the Dining Hall.

Mid-Year Review of the Indian Economy

The Mid-Year Review of the Indian Economy, first published in 1975, had been initiated by Dr. Malcolm Adiseshiah (1910-94), a Life Trustee of the IIC and the Deputy Director-General of UNESCO. It continues with the help of the Malcolm and Elizabeth Adiseshiah Trust (MEAT) that conducts, among other activities, this annual seminar. This year, which marked the centenary of Dr. Adiseshiah, the lead presentation was made by Dr. Biswajit Dhar, Director-General, Research and Development Infrastructure System for Developing Countries (RIS). The discussants were Dr. Mathew Joseph, Senior Consultant, ICRIER, and Ms. Mythili Bhusnurmath, Consulting Editor, The Economic Times. Mr. Saumitra Chaudhuri, Member, Planning Commission, was in the chair.

After an introduction by Dr. Ajit Mozoomdar, which paid tribute to Dr. Malcolm Adiseshiah's vision, Dr. Dhar presented his review. It centred mainly on various structural changes taking place in the Indian economy in response to the global economic situation. As every year, the presentations made at this seminar were published as a book in collaboration with MEAT.

Durgabai Deshmukh Memorial Lecture

The annual Dr. Durgabai Deshmukh Memorial Lecture was held in collaboration with the Council for Social Development (CSD). Marking the birth centenary of Dr. Durgabai Deshmukh, this year's speaker, Dr. Shantha Sinha, Chairperson of the National Commission for the Protection of Child Rights, spoke on 'Deficit Children: Implications for India's Democracy'. Justice J.S. Varma, former Chief Justice of India, presided. Dr. Sinha advocated a rights-based approach that would lead to action with respect to all children. The lecture was published in the October issue of the IIC Quarterly.

The 2009 IIC Experience: A Festival of the Arts

Instituted in 2004, The IIC Experience has become a much-awaited event. This year, for the first time, an attempt was made to focus on a particular theme: the different facets of Rivers. Held from 8-14 October, the Festival highlighted different aspects and moods of the River through exhibitions, performances, films and cuisine chosen from across the riverine areas of the world. The central idea, suggested by Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, was to show how rivers are the lifelines of civilizations and cultures. We desecrate them at our own peril.

The IIC Experience inaugurated by Professor M.G.K. Menon, President, IIC, started with a procession—'Celebrating Sharad Utsav', in which Tagore's songs were presented by 'Robigeetika', conducted by Sudhir Chanda.

Several exhibitions were organized around the theme of the River. 'Along the Banks of the Volga River', from the collection of the National Library of Russia, St. Petersburg, displayed masterpieces of Russian photography from the second half of the nineteenth century. Other exhibitions on international rivers featured the Danube, Tiber, Yangtse, Iguazu Falls in Argentina and Vistula. 'The River Goddesses in the Sculptural Art of India', conceptualized by Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, had spectacular photographs from the collection of the American Institute of Indian Studies. From the Kailash Mansarovar region flow some of the major rivers of Asia. Some beautiful photographs of this area by Mr. Deb Mukharji were exhibited. The northeastern part of the country was to be seen in 'The Brahmaputra', 'People of the Siang', while photographs by Verrier Elwin and Gisela Mehta from the collection of Mr. Dalip Mehta, had some memorable pictures of Arunachal Pradesh and Nagaland. 'People of Majuli Island', Assam, was an exhibition of masks, metalware, textiles, costumes, musical instruments and photographs by Mr. Sumant Barooah. 'Along the Irrawaddy River – Pagan, Mandalay and Yangon' had archival photographs from the collection of the Archaeological Survey of India, and Dr. Navin Sakhuja.

The same theme was explored in an outdoor exhibition, 'Time, the Refreshing River'. Curated by Mr. Keshav Malik, it displayed the works of Premalya Singh, Latika Katt, Neeraj Gupta, Shubhika Lal, and Arpana Caur.

A seminar, held in collaboration with the Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), titled 'Ganga: The Decline of a River,' addressed issues of pollution through chemical waste and sewage, dams, water management and steps for conservation. Two books were released—the Autumn issue of the IIC Quarterly and Water: Culture, Politics and Management (New Delhi, Pearson 2009). The latter was a collection of papers submitted at a seminar, held by the IIC in 2004. The river also inspired an evening of poetry, 'River Sutra', coordinated by Professor K. Satchidanandan, when several Indian poets read from poems on rivers in different languages.

Dance and music performances drawn from the cultures of the major rivers of the world highlighted the human expressions of devotion and gratitude to sacred rivers through music, dance and poetry. Eminent artistes and singers made the evenings memorable.

There was a vocal recital, 'Invocation to the Rivers', by Bhuvanesh Komkali, grandson of Pandit Kumar Gandharva. Other concerts included 'Voices from the Brahmaputra' and 'Songs to the Kaveri' a Carnatic recital by Sudha Ragunathan. 'Narmada Parikrama' had shlokas from Narmada Ashtak by Pandit Jeetendra Sharma from Amarkantak. Bindu Juneja presented choreographic compositions in Odissi. The finale was a concert titled, 'Chalo Man Ganga Yamuna Tir', which had poetry recitation by Saeed Naqvi while Pandit Birju Maharaj, Saswati Sen and troupe performed kathak.

A spectacular flamenco performance by a Spanish ensemble, and folk dances from the Aswan, Egypt, were other memorable performances. 'Mississippi Blues and Jazz from New Orleans' was presented by Sunny Side Up from Delhi.

A festival of feature films, titled 'The River in World Cinema', screened some great classics and drew large audiences.

The varied cuisines of the different river basins, each with its distinctive flavour, were presented and widely appreciated.

Festivals

A four-day festival: '50 Years in Exile: Tibet Experience' was held in collaboration with the Bureau of H.H. the Dalai Lama. It focused on the lives of Tibetans in exile as they constantly attempt to rebuild and preserve the fabric of a community away from its homeland. It was inaugurated by Professor Samdhong Rinpoche, Kalon Tripa and Professor M.G.K. Menon, President, IIC.

The Festival featured a range of Tibetan art and crafts, as well as performances and discussions. There were photographic exhibitions from the collection of Tibet Museum and Vijay Kranti on 'Tibet's Journey in Exile', displays of contemporary art, and books on Tibet. The Annexe brought Tibetan medicine to visitors and was set up by the Men-Tse Khang in Dharamsala. Detailed drawings, herbs and minerals used in Tibetan medicine were on display, while the presence of doctors and an astrologer were added attractions. H.H. the Dalai Lama made an unscheduled visit to the IIC and visited all the venues along with Professor M.G.K. Menon and Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan. The atmosphere that day was charged with emotion.

Another three-day festival, 'Samyukta: Collaborations in Creativity', held in collaboration with Seher, celebrated the coming together of four well-known artistes of Carnatic music and Bharatanatyam: vocalists T.M. Krishna and Bombay Jayashree, and renowned dancers Leela Samson and Priyadarsini Govind. The grand finale had all four artistes coming together to present a unique programme.

Spread over a weekend, another memorable festival celebrated the spirit of the poet-philosopher Kabir. Its core was a quartet of films by Shabnam Virmani on the world of Kabir, a complex network that encompasses music, faith and philosophy. Enchanting music by Prahlad Singh Tipanya and Mukhtiar Ali was a special feature.

IIC Asia Project

During the year the IIC-Asia Project focussed attention on the dialogue between India and Asia, not restricted to women's issues. The Asia Project is exploring the affinities as also distinctiveness of the educational systems in Asia. Countries that have gone through the colonial experience, and that are today nation states, have a shared history. The challenge before many of these countries is how to arrive at a new and more relevant vision for the system of education, specially at the tertiary level. Although it was not possible to organize major seminars, the IIC-Asia Project has hosted distinguished scholars and academicians from Asian countries to share their experience with academics in India.

On 24 August, 2009, the Asia Project organized a lecture by an eminent scholar from Sri Lanka, Professor Jayadeva Tilakasiri, on the theme of Higher Education in Sri Lanka. Dr. Kavita A. Sharma, Director, IIC presided. Professor Tilakasiri provided an insight into the social and political processes by which higher education in Sri Lanka has evolved. He referred to the establishment of the educational institutions during the colonial rule in the same manner as in India. He further brought to attention that the nationalist discourse in Sri Lanka was largely initiated to address the need for using the mother tongue as medium of instruction.

His paper is being circulated to Indian academics for their response.

Professor Tilakasiri, Professor Emeritus of Sanskrit, University of Peradeniya and an outstanding scholar of Asian Puppetry, is author of several books including Religion, Language and Politics in the development of Higher Education in Sri Lanka. His book on Asian puppetry is widely read. He was a guest of the IIC-Asia Project for a week in August during his stay in Delhi. The Asia Project arranged for him to see the collection of puppets made by Smt. Kamaladevi Chattopadhyaya and which are now in the Srinivas Malliah Memorial Theatre Crafts Museum as well as to visit the Sangeet Natak Akademi and the IGNCA. He talked to people in each of these institutions.

It will be recalled that in 1995, the IIC-Asia Project had organized a major symposium on 'Transmissions and Transformations: Learning through the Arts in Asia'. This had brought together people from different parts of Asia specially to explore the Asian methodologies of transmission of knowledge at the formal school level and otherwise. There was an emphasis on devising pedagogical tools for imparting education through the traditional arts of Asia. This initiative was welcomed by the international community and a world conference on Art Education: Creative Capacities for the 21st Century, held in Lisbon under the aegis of UNESCO in March 2006, where the Chairperson of the IIC-Asia Project in her capacity as member of the UNESCO Executive Board was elected as Vice-President of the conference.

Korea has planned to hold a similar conference. The initiative taken by the IIC-Asia Project has thus reached international dimensions. A publication based on the Delhi symposium is being brought out this year.

In this context it may be relevant to report that the Chairperson of the IIC-Asia Project, who was also a founder member of the institution CCRT (Centre for Cultural Resources and Training) was invited to deliver the first Kamaladevi Chattopadhyaya Memorial Lecture. In her lecture entitled 'Education through the Arts: Values and Skills', she gave an overview of the fields of education and culture during the last century and drew attention to the need for transformations and change for future.

The seminar on 'The Culture of Indigo: Exploring the Asian Panorama – Aspects of Plant, Product and Power' held two years back was another initiative to explore the many dimensions of Indigo, the plant and the dye, in Asia. The seminar and the exhibition and the workshop unfolded the botanical, technological, economic, social, political and artistic ramifications from antiquity to the present. The programme was received with much enthusiasm and acknowledged widely for its scientific and sensitive approach to a very complex subject. A major publication based on this programme is under preparation and will comprise not only the papers read at the seminar but also articles by specialists of different disciplines.

The IIC-Asia Project, as a culmination of its earlier initiatives and programmes, had released three publications in March 2009. One amongst these was Speaking for Myself: An Anthology of Asian Women's Writing. The publication had been well received and there were several reviews. Another launch of this publication took place in Kolkata on 31 January, 2010, at the initiative of the Prabha Khaitan Foundation, a social NGO devoted to the betterment in the area of education, culture, art and literature. Mr Sundeep Bhutoria, Trustee of the Foundation, had widely circulated copies of the volume amongst scholars and institutions.

The book was launched by Mr. Mrinal Sen, eminent film maker, with Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan in the Chair. Mr. Sunil Gangopadhyay, President, Sahitya Akademi, Ms. Nabaneeta Dev Sen, Founder President, West Bengal Women Writers Association, Mrs. Reba Som, Director, Tagore Centre, Kolkata, and

Dr. Kavita A. Sharma, Director, IIC also spoke at the function. Six contributors to the volume from abroad who were present for the launch—Donia Gobar (Afghanistan), Kishwar Naheed (Pakistan), Kunzang Choden (Bhutan), Manju Tiwari (Nepal), Putsata Raeng (Cambodia) and Shun Ling Agnes Lam (Hong Kong), read out their poems. The book launch was preceded in the forenoon by a round table discussion on 'Asian Women's Writing', moderated by Director, IIC. Participants included some eminent writers of Bengal, such as Mahashweta Devi, Amalendu Dey, Bani Basu, Bharati Ray, Dibyendu Palit, Geetesh Sharma and Jasohdara Bagchi, as also contributors to the volume from abroad. The editors of the volume—Professors Sukrita Paul Kumar and Malashri Lal—also spoke at the function.

The Anthology, a collection of stories and poems by women writers from thirty-two Asian countries, was highly appreciated as a unique one of its kind.

The second publication arose out of seminar and exhibition-cum-workshop on 'Sui-Dhaga: Crossing Boundaries through Needle and Thread'. This programme had made ripples in the whole field of the crafts. There was also wide appreciation among those related to women studies in the academia on looking at the humble 'needle and thread' as a vital instrumentality of cultural dialogue.

So far sociologists and cultural institutions had not addressed themselves to the role of the needle and the thread and embroidery in cross-cultural dialogue. The crafts people had concentrated only on technique and marketing. The initiative of the IIC-Asia Project resulted in bringing the two disciplines together. Further studies are expected.

The IIC-Asia Project has also been pursuing its special interest in Central Asian archaeology. As a follow up of the seminar organized in September 2009, where archaeologists from Central Asia had interacted with Indian archaeologists, attention of the University Grants Commission was drawn to the paucity of Indian scholarship on early Central Asia. As a response, the UGC has decided to institute fellowships in a select number of universities. The Chairperson, IIC-Asia Project has also taken up with the Ministries of HRD and Culture that the university system must strengthen their departments of archaeology as also give greater support to excavations in Central Asia. The Chairperson has also drawn the attention of the Ministries to the need for nurturing another generation of scholars to read Indian scripts, which pervade the Asian continent from West Asia to South East Asia. She has pointed to the diminishing number of scholars for training people in languages ranging from Kharosti, Brahmi, old Grantha, Burunchi, Modi, Nastaliq, Kufi, Sharda, Teglari, etc. The Ministry of HRD is setting up a group to look into this issue.

Equally worrisome is the fact, which the Chairperson took up also in Parliament, that according to a recent UNESCO report, with 196 of the languages listed as endangered, India tops the UNESCO's list of countries having the maximum number of dialects on the verge of extinction. It is important to realize the magnitude of the problem, arrest this trend and ensure that the precious patrimony of India is not lost. These languages are the repository of precious knowledge so essential to preserve eco-societal balances. In this context it is mentioned that the Chairperson addressed an international seminar on 'Endangered Languages in India', organized by INTACH in collaboration with the Centre in October 2009.

The Chairperson also took part in an international seminar on 'India, China and Asia: Geo-civilizational Perspectives' organized by IIC in December 2009 in collaboration with the Institute of Chinese Studies and several other organizations.

An important programme of the IIC-Asia Project this year was on Dance Research. The Asia Project, in collaboration with the Dance Alliance—India Chapter of the World Dance Alliance, Asia Pacific, organized an international conference entitled 'Re-searching Dance', at IIC from 28 November to 1 December, 2009. The principal areas in focus at the conference were: Movement, kinetics and society; Presentation and representation; and Dance pedagogy of today. The conference comprised a seminar where papers were read, a workshop (from 21 to 27 November held at the Max Mueller Bhavan) and performances at IIC and the India Habitat Centre.

Inaugurating the conference, Dr. Karan Singh, President, Indian Council for Cultural Relations, spoke on the cultural dimensions of dance in both the contexts of practice and research. In her welcome address, Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, who has been instrumental in the organization of the event, expressed her thoughts on the activities of the World Dance Alliance as a unit endeavouring to unify dancers around the globe. A brochure containing abstracts of the papers presented at the seminar was brought out on the occasion.

The event had evinced great interest. About a hundred scholars, dancers and choreographers from Bangladesh, Cambodia, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand, Philippines, Pakistan, UK, Belgium, Germany and USA, besides India, participated. The conference provided a platform for addressing the very problematic issues in relation to kinetics, society, pedagogy, historiography, representation, and other important research areas. It provided an opportunity to young generation of dancers and choreographers to explore different dimensions of practice-led research on dance.

Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan as the leading scholar on the performing arts of Asia, was requested to serve as President of the India Chapter of the WDA, Asia Pacific.

IIC-Asia Project will also collaborate with the Centre of Arabic and African Studies, School of Language, Literature and Culture Studies, JNU in a seminar on 'Reception of Arabian Nights in World Literature' in February 2010.

Seminars/Talks and Discussions

As always, the year was a busy yet varied one. Several programmes were initiated by the Centre and for some we collaborated with other institutions and organizations. The Centre, as always, also facilitated programmes by providing venues free of charge or at subsidized rates to institutions and organizations that pursue similar objectives.

Education

IIC initiated discussions to draw attention to some issues in the field of education, and also collaborated with others in different areas of educational policy and planning.

A seminar on 'Liberal Education in Arts, Sciences and Humanities: Status, Role and Future' addressed issues related to the preparation for a liberal education at the secondary and senior secondary stage. Presentations were made by eminent teachers and educationists, ranging from school to the university stages, as well as education administrators.

A national consultation on 'Foreign Providers in Indian Higher Education – Issues of Entry, Regulation and Models of Engagement' was held in collaboration with the National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA). The participants were eminent educationists, including Professor Yash Pal and Mr. R.P. Agarwal, Secretary in the HRD Ministry.

Professor G.K. Chadha, Vice-chancellor of the SAARC University in Delhi, spoke to members of the IIC and the Education group on 'South Asian University: A Sharing of Higher Educational Aspirations'.

IIC collaborated with Tibet House to hold the Padmapani Lecture on 'Buddhist Humanism and Education at Nalanda Mahavihara: The Making of the Renaissance Men' was delivered at IIC by Dr. James G. Mullens of the Department of Religion and Culture, University of Saskatchewan.

A panel discussion, 'Beyond Numbers: Research in the People Sciences', based on Sage India's 2008 publication Researching Families and Children, focused on reducing the distance between real life phenomena and their formal study. The panelists were Professor Patricia Uberoi, Professor Girishwar Misra, Dr. Harsh Sethi and Dr. S. Anandalakshmy.

Dr. Krishna Kumar, Director, NCERT, and Mr. Gurcharan Das discussed the book Indian Higher Education: Envisioning the Future by Mr. Pawan Agarwal. The Chair was Dr. Narendra Jadhav, Advisor to the Planning Commission on Education.

Health and Healing Systems

Health is a complex issue and one that encompasses several aspects of life-style management and aspects of prevention as well as medical treatment. In 2008-2009, the Centre organized a monthly series, coordinated by Dr. Ranjit Roy Chaudhry, titled PREVENTION OF ILL-HEALTH. Spread over twelve months, the series featured some of the best-known experts in medicine and health care in the country. The range of topics was similarly wide and discursive: from caring for the heart and kidneys to the misuse of drugs and antibiotics. This important twelve lecture series has been concluded.

The Alzheimer's and Related Disorders Society of India held a meeting on World Alzheimer's Day. To Mark World Heart Day 2009, an interactive meeting on 'Wellness in the Workplace' was held in collaboration with All India Heart Foundation.

A discussion on 'Breast Cancer Awareness' was held with the help of Ms. Vijaya Goel. Leading radiologists and oncologists, many of them from the All-India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS), talked on the necessity of prevention and importance of early detection of breast cancer. Dr. Kavita A. Sharma was in the chair.

A discussion on 'Awareness on Organ and Body Donation' had Dr. Aarti Vij, Dr. J.M. Kaul and Mr. Alok Kumar, President of Dadhichi Dehdan, an organization that promotes awareness about organ donation.

Two lectures on the fundamental principles of traditional Chinese medicine were delivered by Dr. Melitus Kwong, a practitioner of traditional Chinese medicine. Three workshops on 'Ayurvedic Lifestyle for Promoting Health and Preventing Ailments' were conducted by Dr. Vinod Verma. The idea was to focus on a lifestyle (Aahar-Vyavhar) that has placed importance on time and space (desha and kala). The workshops covered Dinacharya or the daily routine: Ritucharya or the programme for the seasons and the Saptahacharya or weekly routine.

Two workshops, designed to address the needs of parents of children with disability were conducted by Ms. Aparna Balasundaram, consultant and technical advisor, Samadhan.

Environment and Climate Change

Climate change has become an issue of global concern and diverse opinions. Two important programmes, inspired by the IIC Festival on Rivers, which raised concerns about the state of our rivers and water, have been initiated. Since these threaten the very life of this planet, the IIC Groups on Environment, and Science and Technology came together to address significant areas crossing disciplinary boundaries. In this endeavour, a new series of six lectures, 'Water', coordinated by Professor Ramakrishna Ramaswamy, of the School of Physical Sciences, JNU, was begun to discuss the various aspects of water from the perspectives of different disciplines, such as geology, agriculture and medicine. The first lecture, held in January 2010, was titled 'Water: How Well Do We Understand H₂O?'. The speaker was Professor Charusita Chakravarty.

A discussion on 'Rejuvenation of the River Yamuna: A Blue-Print for Action' was also held. The speakers were Mr. Manoj Misra, Convenor, Yamuna Jiye

Abhiyaan; and Mr. Himanshu Thakkar, Coordinator, South Asia Network on Dams, Rivers and People. A lecture on 'Impact of Climate Change on Urbanscape: Sustainability Issue' too was presented. Further, Vikram Mishra's thought-provoking film, The Final Tide, was screened followed by a discussion.

ENVIRONMENT AND PUBLIC HEALTH LECTURES is a series in collaboration with Toxics Link, which holds monthly programmes that include lectures, seminars, discussions and film shows. A talk by Dr. Chandra Bhushan of the Centre for Science and Environment, was held around the film, Hot as Hell, by Mr. Paranjoy Guha Thakurta, on mining and an underground fire that has been raging in Jharia (Jharkhand) for over a century. Under the same series, there was a focus on 'Floods in India: A Recurring Nightmare'. The speakers were Dr. Dinesh Kumar Mishra, Convener, Barh Mukti Abhiyan, Bihar; Mr. Gopal Krishna, Convener, Water Watch Alliance and Mr. R.C. Jha, Member, Central Water Commission.

In another programme of this series, the focus was on Niyamraja. Two films—Niyamgiri Voice and Mine—were screened, followed by a discussion around the subject of the rights of indigenous people and the need for development.

The IIC has launched a programme called 'Children on Climate Change', to sensitize schoolchildren on issues of climate change. An exhibition of posters by children from schools in Delhi, coordinated by Dr. Narayani Gupta and Dr. Kamla Menon, was held under this project.

'Sustainable Mining' had Professor G.S. Roonwal, former Head, Department of Geology, University of Delhi and presently Visiting Professor of Nuclear Science Centre, as a moderator. The speakers included Dr. B. Sengupta, Mr. Orijit Dey, Dr. S.K. Agarwal as well as officials from the field of mining and environment.

The IIC-Navdanya collaboration holds the annual Howard Memorial Lecture. This year, it was a panel discussion dedicated to the memory of Mr. Edward Goldsmith, founder of the contemporary Ecological Movement, entitled 'The Right to Food, The Gift of Food'. The panelists were Mr. Mohammed Idris, founder Consumer Association of Penang and Third World Network; His Grace Most Rev. Vincent Concessao, Archbishop of India; Mr. Jatinder Bajaj, author of Annam Bahu Kurvita; and Ms. Vasavi Kiro, activist from Jharkhand Alternative Development Forum.

A discussion was also held on 'Environmental and Health Risks of G.M.O. Crops and Food', with presentations by Mr. Jeffery Smith, author of Seeds of Deception and Genetic Roulette, Dr. Vandana Shiva of Navdanya and Mr. Wafaa' Al-Natheema of the Institute of Near Eastern and African Studies, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Two programmes on 'Swine Flu' were held. One was a talk on 'Swine Flu' by Dr. Naresh Gupta, Professor of Medicine at Maulana Azad Medical College. A related event was an illustrated lecture on 'A/H1N1 Influenza – The Facts You Should Know', organized by Toxics Link.

The monthly wildlife films, held by the IIC Environment Group in collaboration with the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) and the Bombay Natural History Society (BNHS), included two films by Suresh Elamon—Angels in Tiger Land and Wild Periyar. Other films were Tarantula—Australia's King of Spiders and Why did the Turtle Cross the Road. 'Reading History: A Festival of Documentaries' was a festival presenting new ways of treating historical subjects on film with a screening of nine seminal documentaries followed by discussions around some of the key issues raised in the films. Largely British and American in origin, most of the films to be presented have not been accessible to viewers in India. The festival was curated by Christopher Mitchell, award-winning film maker and Managing Director, ORTV International Ltd., UK.

Film Club

The IIC Film Club was awarded the prestigious Pritiman Sarkar Memorial Award 2007–2008 for Best Film Society in the Northern Region. The award "for outstanding contribution in promoting awareness and promotion of film art" was presented by the Federation of Film Societies of India. This is the second time the award has been conferred on the IIC Film Club.

The Film Club presented screenings of world cinema classics by leading film makers as well as new features by contemporary directors from India and abroad. Retrospectives of three critically acclaimed directors were presented—Werner Herzog Retrospective, organized in collaboration with Max Mueller Bhawan, presented four seminal works. Each of the films was introduced by eminent film scholars and practitioners. A Tribute to Carl Theodor Dreyer, the Danish born film director of Swedish descent included his best known ground breaking silent film The Passion of Joan of Arc and the multiple award winner, Ordet. Mikio Naruse: A Retrospective of Films, organized in collaboration with The Japan Foundation, presented five path breaking works by the director who is often cited as the third master of classical Japanese cinema and whose work remains far less familiar to most cinephiles than that of his contemporaries, Yasujiro Ozu and Kenji Mizoguchi.

For the first time, the Film Club presented a special Focus on Africa. The first, Festival of Films from South Africa, presented five award-winning features that reflected on and explored contemporary realities pre- and post-apartheid. The festival drew capacity audiences for each of the screenings. The second Focus on Africa presented award winning contemporary Francophone Films from Africa with films from Tunisia; Senegal; Mauritania; Chad and Burkina Faso.

Films from Asia included a festival of award-winning films, Looking East! The just released feature by Amit Rai, Road to Sangam, was presented in collaboration with Film Trust India. The multiple award winning film was introduced by the Director who was present and screening was followed by a discussion.

IIC Quarterly

The publication year was inaugurated by the launch of The Great Divide, the Winter 2008-Spring 2009 theme volume of the IIC Quarterly. As in the recent past, this issue of the journal was co-published as a hard-cover book with HarperCollins, India. The book, also titled The Great Divide: India and Pakistan, was launched on 11 May 2009, by Dr. Karan Singh before a distinguished gathering of writers, academicians, activists and political analysts. A panel discussion followed with contributions by Dr. Ashutosh Varshney, Professor in Political Science, Brown University, publisher-author Urvashi Butalia and Professor Indivar Kamtekar, historian, JNU.

The Summer volume was also widely appreciated. The Autumn issue, brought out in October at the time of the Annual Festival of the Arts, was launched by Professor M.G.K. Menon, in the Gandhi-King Plaza on 12 October.

Occasional Publications

IIC has started publishing Occasional Papers based on the talks and lectures delivered at the Centre. So far, 13 Occasional Papers have been published. These are:

'Environmental Security: Experience and Around the World' by Professor Jeffrey A. McNeely; 'Africa, African Diaspora and the Prospect of Global Cultural Dialogue' by H.E.M. Olabiyi Babalola Joseph Yai; 'The Magic of Prithviraj, Padmini and Pratap in the Vernacular Imaginaire: Revisiting the Interface of Colonialism, Orientalism, and Nationalism by Shail Mayaram; Reading Manuscripts: Observations on Emergence of Medieval Society in South India as Revealed from the Change in Imprecations in Tamil Inscriptions by Noboru Karashima; Challenges to Democracy in Europe by David Marquand; Challenges in Higher Education: Perspectives on India and South Africa by Professor Russel Botman and Ayesha Fakie; Six Images of India by Dr. Oscar Pujol; Ancient Gandhara Then and Now by Dr. B.R. Chakrabarti; Braj beyond Braj: Classical Hindi in the Mughal World by Professor Allison Busch and Ashoka and the Making of Modern India by Professor Romila Thapar.

IIC Diary

The IIC Diary was published in 2008-2009 with a new design. An 'In-Brief' insertion has also been introduced to give information on those month-end programmes that cannot be included due to production time constraints.

The Diary continues to keep our outstation members abreast of the Centre's programmes. Notices about our various divisions, and the obituary serve a useful function. It has been decided that since the Diary is uploaded on the IIC website, it is no longer necessary to send it by costly airmail to members residing abroad.

IIC Library

The IIC Library, a home for several scholars and members, has had a complete facelift, achieved in record time between 20 April, 2009 and 22 June, 2009. It now has a properly designed air conditioning system whose air handling unit enables uniform temperature throughout the library, particularly for the room housing the India Collection and the Himalayan Collection. An independent air conditioning system has been provided for the auditorium foyer to block noise filtration into the reading room.

With the replacement of the false ceiling and the provision of sophisticated lights, the quality of illumination has improved. The partition in one of the cubicles has been removed, creating an audio-video room. The existing stacks have been replaced by compactors for storing the books of the India and Himalayan collections in one room. The Reading Room too has been improved with new upholstery and a light carpet. Other features are a 'New Arrivals Corner' carved out of the Librarian's room and the conversion of the erstwhile Himalayan Collection into a Technical and Server Room.

Additionally, the Inter-Library Loan services provided to members for sharing of books and articles from other libraries have been appreciated by the members.

The Library has introduced JSTOR, an on-line system for archived academic journals, which includes broad subjects, i.e. Arts and Science, Ecology, Language and Literature, Music and Economics. On-line cataloguing is provided to members for browsing the bibliographic database of the Library. Web-OPAC, an online bibliographic database facility has been set up, whereby Members can get details of the bibliographic collection of the Library through Internet and also can check overdue books/fines and can reserve or renew a particular book. In addition, Wi-fi and Internet facilities, available free of charge to members and residents, have proved very popular.

There are 3572 members of the Centre who have registered to avail of its facilities. Besides this, permission was also given to 42 research scholars to use the Library facilities.

During the last year, 1195 books were added in the library. In addition, 226 periodicals and newspapers were received from different parts of the world through subscription, exchange and gift. The budget for books and periodicals was increased to Rs. 22.50 lakh.

The Library is a dynamic place that organizes programmes pertaining to poetry, book discussions and now even on aspects of Information Technology that are relevant to the functioning of a library. The IIC Library and delnet organized a talk on 'Information Literacy Competencies: New Directions' by Professor Caroline M. Stern, Professor, Ferris State University, MI, USA.

It also organized several poetry programmes in collaboration with the Poetry Society, (India). These included readings by Ms. Rachna Joshi, Mr. Rahman Rahi, Ms. Bimla Raina, Mr. Ghulam Nabi Khayal, Professor K. Satchidanandan, Mr. Suresh Kohli, Mr. Ashok Vajpeyi, Dr. Rita Malhotra, Dr. H.K. Kaul, Dr. Ranjit Saha, Ms. Mandira Ghosh, Dr. Sukrita Paul Kumar, Dr. Ganga Prasad Vimal, Dr. Uma Trilok, among others.

There were thirteen Book Discussion Programmes during the year. The authors whose books were discussed included Maj. Gen. (Retd.) Afsir Karim, Prof. T. K. Oommen. Mr. Arun Shourie, Maj. Gen. (Retd.) M. K. Paul, Prof. Ellison Banks Findly, Mr. Harsh Mander, Prof. Meenakshi Mukherjee, Prof. Sachidananda Mohanty, Dr. Farzana Shaikh, Mr. Pawan Agarwal, Prof. Sunanda Sen, Prof. Byasdeb Dasgupta, Prof. Peter Clarke and Prof. Debashih Banerji.

In a memorable programme organized by IIC and The Book Review Literary Trust, Professor Romila Thapar, Professor Sudhir Chandra, and Dr. Malavika Karlekar, discussed An Indian For All Seasons: The Many Lives of R.C. Dutt by Dr. Meenakshi Mukherjee. Professor Sabyasachi Bhattacharya chaired the discussion. Since Dr. Meenakshi Mukherjee passed away a day before the event, this book discussion was turned into a memorial for the late author when several of her admirers and colleagues paid moving tributes.

The 'Informal Encounters' Programme, which was organized in collaboration with the Poetry Society (India) was continued with a session entitled 'Protest Literature', under the Chairmanship of Mr. Soli J. Sorabjee.

Lowering of Subscription Fee for Outstation Members and Members Above 70 Years

A long outstanding demand for a reduction in the subscription fee was considered by the Centre, on the suggestion of some members above the age of 70 who stay outside Delhi/NCR and unable to use the Centre's facilities. Thus, with effect from 1 April, 2009, the subscription fee for Associate and Individual Members who stay outside Delhi/NCR and are over 70 years, has been fixed at Rs.1500/- and Rs.1800/- respectively instead of Rs. 2400/- and

Rs. 3000/-. A little over 500 members will benefit from this decision. Any overpayment will be adjusted while collecting next year's subscription.

Amendments to the Memorandum of Association and Rules and Regulations

The Board of Trustees has approved a Short Term Associate Membership. The Memorandum of Association and Rules and Regulations has been amended accordingly.

The Gardens

The gardens of the IIC are famous for their exotic collection of trees, planted during its initial development by Dr. C.D. Deshmukh, a keen botanist. To this collection a number of other exotic plants and creepers have been added over the years. The gardens this year were full of colour and the newly-acquired Clianthus with its parrot-like beak prompted several garden lovers to discover the name of this exotic flower.

Several new varieties of roses have been added. Our Chrysanthemum collection has also invited great admiration. We participated in the Bougainvillea Festival of India for the second time and more than ten prizes with five trophies and cups with certificate of appreciation were awarded to IIC in this festival.

A training programme was organized in the month of April 2009 for all our gardeners under the supervision of the Delhi Parks and Garden Society. Since they were not hitherto exposed to such activities, this has been a great motivator to our gardening staff.

Security Measures

With a view to beef up security all around, the following measures have been implemented:

- a) Members have been given the Vehicles' stickers to identify their vehicles.

- b) Material entry has been restricted from the designated gates only.
- c) Material in and out entry procedure has been put in place.
- d) All areas have been well lit for a clear distant visibility during nights.
- e) Fifteen CCTV cameras have been installed at strategic points in both Main Centre as well as Annexe and CCTV camera footages are being monitored live round the clock for stricter security vigilance.
- f) Membership Cards have been provided with photographs for easy identification of members.
- g) All gates are manned round the clock.

Financial Position

The income of the Centre during the financial year, 1 April, 2008 to the 31 March, 2009, showed an increase to Rs.2640.96 lakhs from Rs. 2044.65 lakhs. The expenditure increased from Rs. 1814.57 lakhs to Rs. 2348.79 lakhs. The net surplus after providing for depreciation of Rs.130.43 lakhs was Rs. 292.17 lakhs. This surplus is carried to the General Reserve. While finalizing the accounts for the year 2008-09, the entire interest income from investments was taken as revenue income, as per the accepted accounting practice. The audited annual accounts were approved by the Board of Trustees.

The accounts continue to show a satisfactory position in spite of meeting the cost of new infrastructure and enhanced wages under the new Wage Agreement out of the Centre's internal resources. As a policy, the investments of the Centre continue to be placed in risk-free investments, which has enhanced the Centre's corpus and is not affected by the fluctuations in the market.

Computerization

The new software and hardware has been made fully operational in the Library from June 2009. WEBOPAC (Web Open Public Access Catalogue) has been made operational from August 2009. Five computers were replaced in the Library, and two new ones installed in the Audio-Video Section.

Work on re-designing the website is in progress and is targeted to be operationalized in 2010. WiFi services have been extended to the ten single hostel rooms in the new infrastructure. Fifteen new computers have been purchased to replace the older and slower computers, installed in various departments. A major exercise is being undertaken to implement a more comprehensive software to upgrade applications relating to all areas of activities of the centre.

Staff

On the occasion of the forty-eighth Annual Day of the Centre a get-together of staff was organized on 21 January, 2010, at which Professor M.G.K. Menon, IIC President felicitated the employees and presented cash rewards, watches, and certificates to Mrs. S. Aggarwal, Mr. S.S. Patel, Mr. Prehlad Singh, Mr. Satish Babu, Mr. A.K. Jaggi, Mr. Bikram Chand, Mr. Devender Singh, Mr. Ram Gopal, Mr. Roshan Lal, Mr. Kanhaiya Lal, Mr. S.K. Raju, Mr. S.C. Sharma, Mr. Arvind Saxena, Mr. Govind Ram, Mr. Aslam Khan. These employees had completed 25 years of dedicated service to the Centre.

The Centre bade farewell to Dr. A.C. Katoch, Administration Officer on 31 March, Cmde. (Retd.) K.N. Venugopal, Consultant (G) on 29 June, Mr. Fateh Ram, Head Gardener on 31 July, Mr. Hempal, Driver on 30 September, Ms. Bela Butalia, Dy. Editor and Mr. W.R. Sehgal on 31 December, 2009.

Training of Staff

Fire Emergencies

In order to equip employees for handling fire-related emergencies, training courses on fire-fighting were organized at the Centre in May and September 2009. These courses were conducted by a senior official of the Delhi Fire Service.

A total of 110 employees have been given training through lectures and practical demonstrations on handling fire-fighting equipment. The September 2009 session was customized to give training in handling kitchen-specific fires. A special customized training programme in handling fire emergencies was arranged for the Kitchen Staff on 7 January, 2010.

The programme included classroom lectures on handling and preventing fire in kitchen. The session also comprised of a fire evacuation drill.

First Aid

First round of Training in First Aid was organized by the St. John Ambulance (Indian Red Cross Society) for the employees of the Centre in the month of May, 2009. The week-long programme was conducted by the faculty of Red Cross. In total, thirty employees representing all departments of the Centre, were imparted training in First Aid.

The second round of training session was held from 11-16 January, 2010, when fifty employees were trained.

Upkeep and Maintenance

Repair/Renovation of Guest Rooms

All single rooms and one double room have been renovated and these rooms have become operational in the month of April 2009.

The toilets of the old wing double rooms have been renovated and limited maintenance work has been carried out in all twelve rooms. The twenty year-old hot water boiler for feeding hot water to the guest rooms, has been also replaced.

Repair and Maintenance of Centre's Building

The problem of maintenance of the Centre's buildings was highlighted during the heavy rains in September 2009. It is proposed to take up repair work of the Centre's building in a phased manner, after getting an assessment report from consultants.

Renovation of Main Kitchen

The main kitchen of the Centre was developed twenty years ago. Due to the increased load on the main kitchen and normal wear and tear, an upgradation and replacement of the drainage system, the ventilation system and the equipments installed in the kitchen has become necessary. It is proposed to undertake this in April-May 2010.

Progress of the Infrastructure Project

The construction of terrace pergola and the construction of one single and nine double rooms of the Hostel Block has been completed and these facilities have become operational.

The work for the renovation and augmentation of the essential building services (viz. electrical supply system, energy power supply system and air-conditioning system) have been completed and become operational. These services have already been integrated with the new guest rooms of the hostel block and provisions have been made to integrate these with the facilities coming up in the conference block. The changeover of the electrical and air-conditioning services from the old to a new upgraded system has been accomplished with least inconvenience to the members.

The construction work of the conference block building is in progress, wherein it is proposed to provide one large multipurpose hall for 350 persons, two seminar rooms for 45 persons each, one conference room for 90 persons, art gallery, members' cafeteria, centralized booking office members' facilities consisting of internet, ATM, retiring room etc.

The fully furnished building is scheduled to be made operational by end August / early September 2010.

The estimated cost of Rs. 24.78 crore was approved by the Board of Trustees for the infrastructure project consisting of the construction of a terrace pergola, conference block building, programmes block extension building, facilitation centre and ten additional guest rooms over the single room hostel block, and that for the integration and augmentation of the building services. This amount also included the professional fees for the architect and consultants etc.

The work of construction of a terrace pergola, ten guest rooms and that of augmentation and integration of the building services is now complete. The construction of a conference block building is in progress. So far, Rs. 11.5 crore have been spent towards the above said works. Though in terms of individual segments, there are pluses and minuses, on the whole, the expenditure is in tune with the estimates as of now.

Management of the Centre

I would like to place on the record valuable contribution made by Mr. P.R. Sivasubramanian, CFO, who retired at the end of February 2010, after a very successful tenure of about eight years. His contribution to managing of the finances of the Centre was exemplary.

Mr. M.P. Wadhawan, Hon. Treasurer, continued to favour the Centre with his valuable advice.

We are grateful to Mr. K.N. Rai, Hony. Technical Consultant, for his regular advice and involvement in the Infrastructure Project. We would also like to thank Mr. S.K. Mathur, garden consultant, for his advice and guidance on horticultural matters.

The Centre continued to benefit from the expert advice and guidance of its eminent trustees.

The Finance Committee, chaired by Dr. Shankar Nath Acharya, undertook detailed exercises to study, in depth, the finances of the Centre and provided guidance wherever necessary.

Members of Executive Committee provided valuable inputs and support to the management in operational activities. One member of Executive Committee has been nominated each in the House Committee, Library and Infrastructure Committee for better exchange of views / ideas.

The House Committee has been reconstituted under the chairmanship of Brig. Sukhjit Singh for a two year period.

The Library Committee has been reconstituted under the Chairmanship of Mr. Soli J. Sorabjee for two year period.

Finally, the Centre has benefited from the excellent suggestions made by members and the help many of them have given to bring these to fruition. Our gratitude to members, who comprise the finest and most talented people in our society and whose dedication and contribution to the Centre is, as always, invaluable.

All these bodies and individuals have orchestrated to produce a quality of excellence in an institution that we can all be justly proud of.

Dr. Kavita A. Sharma
Director

28 Oct- The Africans – A Triple Heritage

1 Nov. A nine part BBC series that looked at specific issues facing Africa. This classic series of films was made in 1986 with Ali Mazrui who focuses especially on the conflicts of interest created by having a triple heritage of cultures

Part 1: The Nature of a Continent

discusses African developments from the perspective of its heritage. Showed how geography influences history

Part 2: A Legacy of Lifestyles

addressed what constitutes 'family' in African culture

30 Part 3: New Gods

examined the factors that influence religion in Africa,

Part 4: Tools of Exploitation

looked at the manner in which Africa's human and natural resources have been exploited before, during and after the colonial period

31 Part 5: New Conflicts

examined urbanization, warrior traditions, European created national boundaries, the Islamic jihad tradition, and nationalist movements of Africa's postcolonial period

Part 6: In Search of Stability

examined how to govern a continent where 70 coups have taken place in Africa during the last 25 years

1 Nov. Part 7: A Garden of Eden in Decay examined economic and agricultural failures and successes in Algeria, Ghana, and Zimbabwe. Although 70 million Africans suffer from malnutrition, their countries export food to Europe

Part 8: Clash of Cultures

the struggle to evolve new, effective, and essentially African ways of doing things is the topic of this episode

Part 9: Global Africa

focused on Africa's role in international politics and economics, from U.N. participation to cobalt production and the political crisis in South Africa. Examined the continuing influence of the superpowers on the affairs of the continent

A Tribute To Carl Theodor Dreyer (1889-1968)

Carl Theodor Dreyer, Danish born film director of Swedish descent is best known for his ground-breaking silent film The Passion of Joan of Arc. Dreyer made only a handful of films in his 45-year career, and only four acknowledged sound films: Vampyr, Day of Wrath, Ordet (The Word), and Gertrud. More than any director, Dreyer's films now belong among the most daring in cinema, with a visionary power that makes them unique.
